COURT DECISIONS.

Notes of Cases Recently Decided, Which are of Interest to Our People.

DIGESTED BY W. B. MARTIN.
(Exclusively for Virginian-Pilot.)

THE OLINDE RODRIGUES.

Supreme Court of the United States.
May 5, 1899.

A VESSEL CAPTURED IN AT-TEMPTING TO ENTER A BLOCK-ADED PORT, AFTER WARNING BY A CRUISER A FEW DAYS BE-FORE, CANNOT DISPUTE THE EFFICIENCY OF THE BLOCKAD-ING FORCE.

AN EFFECTIVE BLOCKADE DOES NOT DEPEND ON THE NUMBER OF VESSELS, BUT IS ONE THAT MAKES IT DANGEROUS IN FACT TO ATTEMPT TO RUN IT.

This was a libel filed by the United States against the steamship Olinde Rodrigues and cargo in the District Court of South Carolina for violating the blockade of San Juan, Porto Rico.
On the 5th of July, 1898, the ship came out of San Juan, and a boarding officer of the U. S. ship Yosemite entered on the log of the Olinde Rodrigues an official warning of the blockade, and she went on her way. On July 16th, she was captured by the New Orleans, then blockading San Juan, as attempting to enter that port. The District Court ordered the restitution of the ship to the claimants on the ground that the blockade of San Juan was not an effective blockade, and the United States appealed.

The Court says:
We are unable to concur with the learned district judge in the conclusion that the blockade of the port of San Juan at the time this steamship was captured was not an effective blockade.

To be binding, the blockade must be known, and the blockading force must be present, but there is any rule of law determining that the presence of a particular force is essential in order to render a blockade effective. We do not think so, but on the contrary, that the test is whether the blockade is practically effective, and that is a question, though a mixed one, more of fact than law.

In the Francisco, Dr. Lushington said: "What, then, is an efficient blockade, and how has it been defined, if indeed, the term definition can be applied to such a subject? The one definition mentioned is, that express entrance shall be attended with evident danger; another, that of Chancellor Kent, is that it shall be apparently dangerous."

But it cannot be that a vessel actually captured in attempting to enter a blockaded port after warning entered on her log by a cruiser off the port only a few days before, could dispute the efficiency of the force to which she was subjected.

As we hold that an effective blockade is a blockade so effective as to make it dangerous in fact for vessels to attempt to enter the blockaded port, it follows that the question of effectiveness is not controlled by the number of the blockading force. In other words, the position cannot be maintained that one modern cruiser though sufficient in fact, is not sufficient in law.

We are of opinion that if a single modern cruiser blockading a port renders it in fact dangerous for other craft to enter the port, that is sufficient thereby the blockade is made practically effective. Decree modified.

HUETTINGER V. HUETTINGER.

Court of Chancery of New Jersey.
June 6, 1899.

AN INJUNCTION TO PROHIBIT THE PROSECUTION OF A SUIT FOR DIVORCE PENDING IN AN-OTHER STATE WILL BE GRANT-ED, WHERE IT IS ALLEGED THAT THE ASSERTION OF RES-IDENCE THERE IS A MERE PRE-TENSE, MADE TO SUPPORT THE SUIT.

This was a suit in chancery by Alice Huettinger against her husband from further proceeding in a suit for divorce from her which he had brought in South Dakota. The bill alleges that the sole object of the husband's going to South Dakota was to obtain an apparent residence there, to enable him to institute his representations of bona fide residence there, in fact, a fraud upon the Dakota Court and upon the wife, as he is in fact a resident of New Jersey.

The court says:
The court of errors in Magowan v.
Magowan, declared that a bona fide residence in a State is a jurisdictional fact, which must necessarily exist and precede a consideration of the merits of a divorce case; that while the determination of that question by the court assuming jurisdiction is final, not only in that State, but everywhere else, yet where that determination had been obtained by fraud and false statements, it is without extra-territorial effect, and may be treated as void in the courts of other States. It is to prevent the success of an attempt to perpetrate such a fraud that the complainant now invokes the aid of a court.

In Kempton v. Kempton Vice-Chancellor Pitney granted a preliminary injunction restraining the further prosecution of a divorce suit in North Dakota, where it was shown, as in this case, that the assertion of residence there was a mere pretense to give color to and support the suit for divorce. A preliminary injunction should issue.

POLICE COURT RECORD.

YOUNG MAN GOES WRONG—HE CHOKED HER.

John Penet, a young man living with foster parents in Portsmouth, was charged in the Police Court yesterday with stealing pool balls from the Hotel Norfolk, and Henry Seelinger's place, on Church street. The case was considered until this morning, to give the defendant time to secure counsel. Penet is the youth who was sent to jail a few weeks ago in default of a fine for drunkenness and breaking a window.
His foster mother paid the fine and was in hopes that he would do better.

He, however, returned to his evil associates, and is now charged with theft.
In the last six weeks Penet has been a frequent visitor to the Police Court, mostly for drunkenness.

A FIGHT ADJUDICATED.

Joe Wood and Frank Redd, the two colored men who came near finishing each other in a fight in Princess Anne avenue last Saturday, were in the Police Court yesterday morning for trial.
The testimony showed that Wood was at fault, and he was fined $25 and given thirty days in jail for stabbing Redd, and $10 and cost for beating his wife.
Redd was discharged and Wood appealed.

HE CHOKED MARY.

William Flanagan, a notorious negro was given six months in jail by Justice Tomlin yesterday for choking Mary Gregory in her room, corner of Plume street and Adington's lane, early yesterday morning. Flanagan was arrested at the point of a pistol, and in court the woman produced a blood-stained pillow, saying she was choked until blood rushed from her mouth and nostrils.

MINOR CASES.

The following minor cases were also satisfactorily disposed of:
Martha Watson, colored, stealing $1.39 from John Furuss, also colored; continued up to-day.
George Wise, colored, embezzling; fined $5.
Dave Duncan, embezzling, dismissed at cost of J. P. Furlong and Frank Moran, complainants.

A Complaint.

Dear Sir: Please call the attention of the police authorities to the rowdy conduct of gangs of young loafers and ruffians who make a nightly practice of sitting on the rails of Holt street bridge and hooting and yelling at and calling insulting names and remarks to people who are quietly passing.

They usually select from 9 to 10 o'clock or later, when most of the people who promenade on the bridge have gone home.

There ought to be an officer there to protect peaceable citizens who are passing from insult. Yours truly, AN OLD SUBSCRIBER
And Resident of Brambleton.

Hampton college.

Notwithstanding the fact that this fine building was burned last week, Miss Fitchett, the principal, announces that she has secured other quarters for the session, and will re-open her school at the usual time, September 2d, with the same full faculty and with the addition of Miss Nash, who is an M. A. of St. Andrew's University, Scotland.

South Reservoir avenue, are visiting in Washington and Baltimore.

The condition of Mrs. Mary F.
Weaver, who has been ill for the past five years at her residence, corner of Clay and Claiborne avenues, was considered very alarming at 10 o'clock last night, and her dissolution is hourly expected.

Mr. W. F. Turner and wife, of North Park avenue, have returned from a pleasant visit North.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Tisdale, of South Park avenue, are the guests of relatives and friends at Spring Hope, who has been visiting Mrs. J. T. Rolland, of 826 Church street, has returned home.

Mrs. C. H. Monroe and her sister, Miss Hattie Beville, of Central avenue, have returned from a visit to friends in Richmond. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Henry Austin and Mrs.
Madison.

Rev. Daniel T. Merritt, pastor of Huntersville M. E. Church, South, is assisting the Rev. R. B. Readles in a revival meeting at Joliff Church, Norfolk Circuit.

Miss Mary Barrett, of New York, who has been visiting Mrs. T. J. Rowland, of 826 Church street, has returned home.

Mrs. Henry Austin and Mrs. Madison, of Richmond, are on an extended visit to Mrs. C. H. Monroe, corner of Virginia avenue and Twenty-sixth street, Park Place.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The Norfolk City Guard will meet this evening for the purpose of electing officers. A smoker will follow.
The "Harvest Home" Convention of the W. C. T. U. will convene at Denby's Church, Norfolk county, at 10 o'clock this morning.

Judge Allen R. Hancek, of the Corporation Court, has returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. McAllister have returned home from their visit to New York, Philadelphia and other Northern points.

The vitrified brick, with which Avon street is to be paved from the police station to Plume street, arrived yesterday.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church are requested to attend a meeting to be held at the church at 9:30 this a. m.—Important business.

The Norfolk W. C. T. U. met at noon yesterday at their usual place and passed out the work of the various committees for the fall and winter campaign.

Mr. Raymond Gaskins, stenographer at Old Bay Line office, is spending a few days at Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Hannaford, of Portland, Me., are spending a few days in Norfolk on pleasure bent. Mr. Hannaford is a large dealer in foreign and domestic fruits and produce.

Maj. James H. Darst, who was assaulted and robbed by Noel Quinby, colored, is an uncle of Mr. J. C. Darst, colored, of this city. Maj. Darst has asked the Governor to commute Quinby's death sentence to life imprisonment.

Miss Beulah B. Brimmer returned yesterday from a six weeks' stay in Washington, where she had a very pleasant visit.

Mr. Hugh G. Miller will leave this morning for Crittenden, Nensmond county, where he will to-night deliver an address at a new Methodist Church. Mr.
Miller is a very graceful orator and will deliver an address of a patriotic nature.

There were two excursions into Norfolk yesterday. One came from Greensboro and Burkeville, N. C., on the regular train over the Southern Railway, with 400 or 500 people, and the other as a special train of ten coaches from Danville, where they arrived at Danville division of the Southern Railway.

Mr. J. W. Rogers, of Onley, Va., passed through the city yesterday having in charge a number of boys and girls en route to Bowling Green Seminary and Bedford City Academy.

Ames J. Ackiss, Commonwealth's Attorney, and Miss Anne county, was in the city last night, and called on Hon. W. A. Young.

Mr. Thomas B. Linton and wife left last night via the Old Dominion steamer for New York and the Catskill Mountains for a two weeks' stay.

ATLANTIC CITY WARD.

Miss Sadie Ballentine, who has been very sick at her home, on Central avenue for several days, was reported much improved last night.

Miss Grace Simpson, of Central avenue, has returned from a two weeks' vacation pleasantly spent with relatives in Warwick county.

The Atlantic City W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs.
Isaac Payne; Vice President, Mrs. A. C.
Miley; Recording Secretary, Mrs. L. W.
E. Lee; Treasurer, Mrs. C. O. Barnes.
Mrs. C. H. Hostetter was elected delegate to the "Harvest Home" Convention, which meets at Denby's Church, Norfolk county, at 10 o'clock this morning.

The North Ghent Land Company, having been granted permission by the special circuit court, to sell the land owned by the company, the Board and the City Engineer, have commenced the improvements on their property. It is to be laid off in squares, with stone curbing and concrete and granolithic paving. The work is being done under the supervision of Mr. Riddle. When these improvements are finished, water will be laid and house connections made.

The Sunday school of LeKies' Memorial Church will have a grand rally day in the near future. An elaborate program is being prepared for the occasion.

Mr. M. C. Anderson, who has been under treatment at the Norfolk Protestant Hospital for some time, was considered to be in an extremely critical condition at 9 o'clock last night. He has suffered for the past two years from a tumor in his throat. He had an operation performed on him in Richmond with the hope of recovery, and he was also treated for his troubles.
There are little or no hopes entertained for his recovery.

LAMBERT'S POINT.

Mrs. Hanowell is reported very ill at her home on Bowden's Ferry road.

Rev. George W. Cox, accompanied by Mrs. Poague, of Lawrence avenue, and her guests, the Misses Belle and Grace Witter, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs.
McPherson, of Pocahontas avenue, went on a moonlight fishing excursion down the harbor last night.

Mr. Wm. Halstead, who has been temporarily engaged as pharmaceutical clerk at Snodgers' drug-store, left yesterday for Hampton, to accept a similar position with the Johnson pharmacy in that town.

Mr. John Detrick is very sick at his home on Shenandoah street.
Miss Maggie Lufsey, of Myers avenue, was quite badly burned on her right arm yesterday by a hot iron falling on it.

The Lambert's Point public school has opened for the session of 1899 and with Professor Hutchings as principal.

The members of the Methodist Church here are preparing to give their pastor, Rev. George H. Spooner, a handsome reception on his return from the mountains.

of Nineteenth street, Park Place; $200.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A LADY OF QUALITY."

Stephen Townsend's dramatization of Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's popular English novel is exactly suited to the talents of Miss Eugenie Blair, and she seems to have selected a cast peculiarly fitted for the different roles.
The presentation of the play at the Academy of Music last night was received by the large audience. Miss Blair fully sustained her reputation as an emotional actress of great ability.
Her part is similar somewhat to the roles in "East Lynne" and "The New Magdalen." At the end of one act last night she received not less than four curtain calls. The audience showed its appreciation of the clever playing several times during the play. This is the second presentation of "A Lady of Quality" this season.

"MR. PLASTER OF PARIS."

This farce-comedy will be the attraction at the Academy to-night. The company which presents the play here is said to be an exceptionally strong one. In addition to Mr. Kearney and Miss Morrison, it includes Harry J.
Day, the celebrated singer (who in the comedy guarantees to get divorced in half an hour and no questions asked), Frank Lelden, Barr and Evans, J. H.
Connelly, Edward McArdle, the Leigh Sisters, Edie Langfers, Katie Prance, Belle Anson and many others. Elaborate scenery is carried for the piece and some startling effects will be introduced. For those who love good comedy, coupled with refinement and excellent specialties, the visit of "Mr.
Plaster of Paris" offers a treat. Usual prices.

"MILK FIFI."

There will be much interest in the engagement of "Milk Fifi" at the Academy of Music on Tuesday, September 19. The unflagging fun and vivacity and the admirable acting of Miss Maurine Granger, Marie Glyroy, Edward Ateles, Miss Pearl Evelyn, Dorr Davidson and Harry Allen combine to make it one of the most popular riv-alities of the season.
